NR 30 | 4 NOVEMBER 2014

exhibition

Georg Dobler
 15.11.14 – 31.12.14

Georg Dobler makes jewellery which is based on geometric principles or refers to nature. He often incorporates both influences in a single piece, reinforcing the effect by combining metal with colourisation or gemstones.

His recent, lavish use of intense, radiant colours and plastic ‘gems’ displays a shift in style from classic to artificial.

Thanh-Truc Nguyen
 15.11.14 – 31.12.14

Thanh-Truc Nguyen makes light, bright, dynamic jewellery and mainly produces brooches.

Her pieces incorporate transparent yet sturdy fine metal gauze, which creates a moiré effect when used in layers. Light and movement cause the surface to sparkle and gleam, a contemporary reference to glittering gemstones.
